Travel Planning & In-Person Guidance: Morocco

For travelers seeking depth, ease, and authentic engagement with place and people

Drawing on the same on-the-ground intelligence I use to design my retreats and leveraging my lived experience, local relationships, long-term presence, and cultural fluency, this is a human-centered service designed to reduce friction, overwhelm, and risk, enabling solo travelers, travel partners, couples, small families and groups to make the most of their time and experience meaningful cultural immersion.

Consultation (without in-person guidance):

- 1 × 75-minute virtual pre-trip consultation and planning session
